Community Preservation Committee

Accepting Applications for FY23

The Harvard Community Preservation Committee is now accepting funding applications for Fiscal Year 2023. Community preservation funds dedicate State and local monies to open space, recreation, historic preservation, and affordable housing initiatives in the Town of Harvard. Beginning this year, applicants must indicate whether they have submitted their applications for review by the Harvard Climate Resilience Working Group regarding the climate impact of their projects. Applications can be found on the Town of Harvard Website. The deadline for submissions is Thursday, Oct. 21, 2021.
